FALSIFICATION OF CREDIT INFORMATION TO THE LENDER IS A CRIMINAL VIOLATION OF FEDERAL LAW.

I understand and agree that First Federal of Lakewood ("Lender") may obtain my credit history (credit or consumer report) and employment history from third parties. I have the right to ask the Lender whether it requested a consumer report and, if it requested a report, to provide me with the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished the report. If the credit is approved, the Lender may obtain subsequent consumer reports in connection with reviewing the account, increasing the credit line on the account (if applicable), and taking collection action on the account, or for other legitimate purposes associated with the account. I affirm that all the information in the credit application is complete and true, whether completed by me or by you at my direction. I understand that the Lender will rely on the information in the credit application in making its credit decision.

Disclosure of Account Information: Lender may share information within First Federal of Lakewood as well as with unaffiliated third parties external to First Federal of Lakewood as permitted by law and as described in our Privacy Policy.

Customer Identification: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each customer who opens an account. Therefore, all new and existing customers are subject to the identity verification requirements. When a customer opens an account with any entity within First Federal of Lakewood, we will ask for their name, address and identification number, and, in the case of an individual, his or her date of birth. For business accounts, we may also obtain this information for individuals associated with the business. We may also request to see a driver's license or other identifying documents. In all cases, First Federal of Lakewood is committed to protecting the privacy and identity of each of its customers.
